THE DOT FAIRYLAND

"Is it very cold where the Snow Queen lives?" asked Alice when she and Tom had tired of looking at the hundreds of ice bergs on all sides

"Yes," said the Crow, "the ground is always covered with ice and snow, even in the summertime." "My," said Tom, "how does the Snow Queen get around? The snow must be awful deep."

"Oh," replied the Crow, "she has a beautiful golden _____."

To find out what the Snow Queen had, join the dots with a pencil line, beginning with dot No. 1 and taking them in numerical order. Make the lines straight and use a rather soft pencil. Then cut out and paste each day's picture in a scrap book, and when the last one in the series is printed you will have the story of "The Dot Fairyland" complete in permanent

A Perfect Woman and Her Gloves

THERE may be such a thing as a perfect woman, but the majority have to be content with striving to reach the mark.

And the one who (with high opinion of her charm) is content to vegetate, making no effort, is likely to fall farther short of attainment than her sister who climbs.

Worth-while women are climbers.

And so in Gloves. We pick the proven brands, because they have become proven during many years of striving for perfection. Pride of product is the hall-mark of earnest endeavor. Incidentally, we ourselves are aiming at no less than perfect service.
